

CUM ANGELIS

vij.

W Ith the angels and the children * may we be found faithful, crying unto the vanquisher of death, Hosanna in the highest.

The image shows a musical score for a hymn titled 'CUM ANGELIS'. It begins with a large, ornate initial 'W' in a black serif font. Above the first staff of music, the number 'vij.' is written. The music is written on three staves, each with a single line. The notes are represented by small black squares, and there are vertical bar lines indicating measures. The lyrics are written below the staves: 'Ith the angels and the children * may we be' on the first staff, 'found faithful, crying unto the vanquisher of death, Hosan-' on the second, and 'na in the highest.' on the third. The third staff ends with a double bar line.
