BENEDICTUS

Blessed be the Lord God of Is-ra-el: for he hath vi-sited and redeemed his people. And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us: in the house of his servant David. As he spake by the mouth of his ho-ly Prophets: which have been since the world began. That we should be saved from our enemies: and from the hands of all that hate us. To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers: and to remember his ho-ly covenant. To perform the oath which he swore to our fore-father Abraham: that he would give us. That we, being de-li-vered out of the hand of our e-nemies: might serve him without fear. In ho-liness and righteousness before him:

all the days of our life. And thou child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways. To give knowledge of salvation un-to his people: for the remission of their sins.

Through the tender mer-cy of our God: whereby the Day-spring from on high hath vi-sited us. To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: and to guide our feet in-to the way of peace. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in ... is now, and e-ver shall be: world without end. Amen.
